website for District 22, Leonard seconded, approved. Debbie also made a motion to create a chair position "District 22 IT Person" to maintain the website, Joe seconded, approved. A person will be elected at the 2/13/22 meeting to fill the position

New Business

- Review proposed budget for 2022 – will visit next month. Look over the budget and contact Bonnis with any issues or questions
- It was suggested that we move the GSR sharing to the Introduction time as so the GSR's are not rushed with their reports at the end of the meeting. We will try this out next month

GSR Sharing

- Christine – GSR Early Risers Zoom, Los Osos. 30-40 participants daily, locals plus England, Ireland, Northern & Southern California and various other states
- Peggy (via email) – GSR Morning Fantastic. Currently a Hybrid meeting with solid Zoom base of 12-20 attendees. They will have a business meeting vote on 1/21/22 as to whether to stay Hybrid or divide into Zoomers and In Person Meetings separately
- John B – GSR Sunday Morning Coming Down. Meeting is growing with 60 people last Sunday
- Kimberly - GSR Pioneer Group. 7th Tradition is up. The New Years Eve party will be 5/7/22 at the Grange Hall and will be a talent show
- Kane A – GSR Meeting in the Park. Attendance is improving with the weather getting better
- Jim L – AGSR Sunday Evening Rap Group. 15-20 participants and looking toward a hybrid venue
- Joe R – GSR Melody Group. Any checks being mailed to Melody please send to: Harmony Group 2415 Cima Ct., SLO, 93401. In February Melody will be moving to 265 South St., Suite F, SLO, 93401, near Sunshine Donuts
- Ry – GSR Sunday Evening Rap Group. Looking for a new meeting space to start meeting in person
- Nick –GSR 2nd Saturday Morro Bay. Highest attendance (77 people) since getting back
- Mark – GSR Morro Bay Young People. Recent elections filled some positions, however, there are more available
- Chenoah – GSR Mesa Group. There were 11 Christmas day/eve marathon meetings and were very successful. Attendance has been low at the 7a daily Zoom meetings. There is a need for secretaries.

Adjournment, Jim L made a motion to close Judy seconded and approved. Meeting adjourned at 11:30a with the Responsibility Pledge
